Terms and Conditions

Offer valid for qualifying e-bicycles purchased January 1, 2023 through December 31, 2023. Only Class 1 e-bikes (limited to a top speed of 20 miles per hour with an electric motor engages only when the rider is pedaling) are eligible. This offer is limited to 2 or fewer e-bikes per customer/household per year. This rebate is in conjunction with other offers that might be offered at local bicycle retailers and sporting goods retailers in Stowe, Vermont and Lamoille County.

For more information: Stowe Electric: 802-253-7215, rebates@stowelectric.com, or <https://www.stowelectric.com/programs/rebate-programs>.

You are responsible for following all rules applicable to electric bicycle use and you must independently verify you are allowed to use any e-bike on any trail, path, or road. We will not endorse an e-bike manufacturer and limit this rebate to only Class I e-bikes as defined by State of Vermont and local regulations. We encourage you to visit a retailer in Stowe, Vermont. Or contact the Stowe Energy Committee for more information.

You must send Stowe Electric a copy of the invoice you received at the point of purchase. If the model number and serial number are not provided on your invoice form, then please refer to the faceplate on your e-bike and send a picture of the faceplate attached to your rebate request.

We will contact you directly with additional information requests. Otherwise, please allow a minimum of 30 days from the date of receipt for us to mail your rebate check.

Stowe Electric reserves the right to modify or end this offer at any time.
